Student projects

Best practices:

Innovative (Student) Serbian projects based on Centropa Materials

Interactive and jointly created multimedia guides berlinHistory

- Implemented by Centropa, the Ravensbruck Memorial Museum, Jewish Museum Galicia (Poland), BerlinHistoryApp, the Centre for Education Policy (Serbia)
- Funded by The Foundation Remembrance, Responsibility and Future (EVZ)
- From November 2020-June 2022
- Students from Belgrade, Hamburg and Krakow researched WWII sites of Nazi persecution to create multimedia city guides for peers

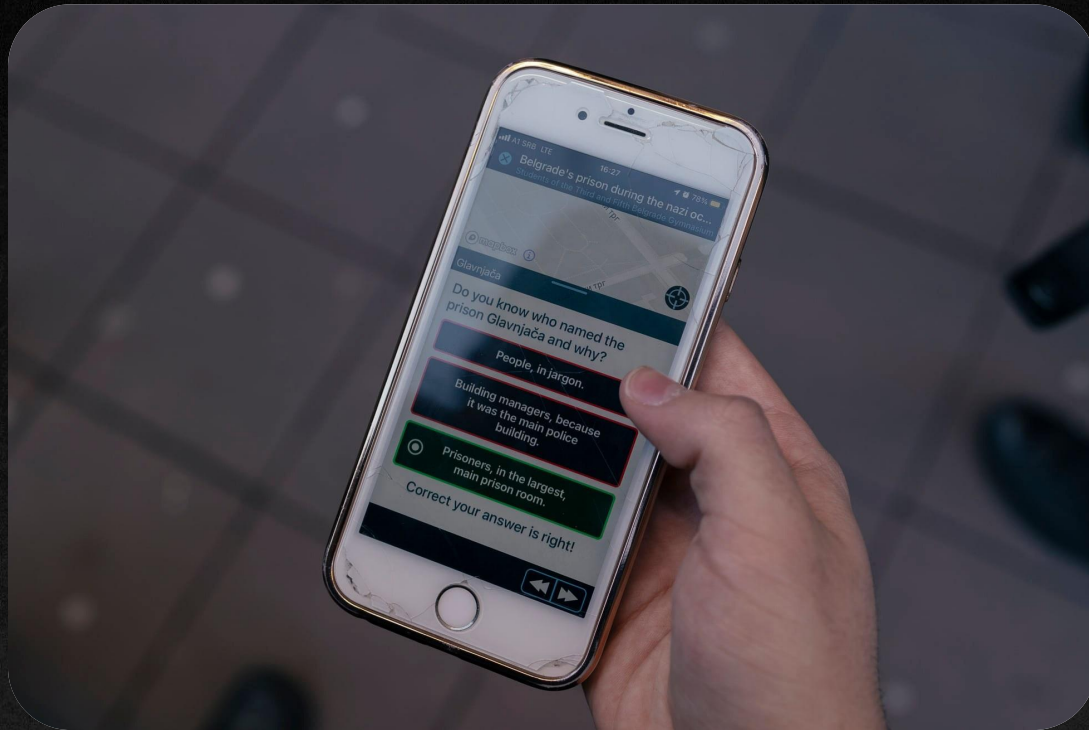

Serbian team & activities

- 30 students from Third and Fifth Belgrade Gymnasium, led by four teachers
- Online and in-person workshops with historians and experts
- Field visits to sites: Topovske Šupe, Old Fairground (Staro sajmište), Banjica Concentration Camp Museum...
- Collaboration with German and Polish students via Zoom and Edmodo

Interactive and jointly created multimedia guides: Project Outcomes

Created 3 interactive tours in the BerlinHistory App (in English and Serbian):

1. Belgrade's Prisons during Nazi Occupation
2. Camps in Belgrade
3. Following the Path of Freedom – dedicated to antifascist Sloboda Trajkovic

Interactive and jointly created multimedia guides: Impact & Presentation

- Students filmed promotional videos, launched an Instagram campaign
- Invited to present at Centropa Summer Academy 2021 to educators worldwide
- Public promotion on 18 Feb 2022 at the Jewish Cultural Center in Belgrade
- Gained historical knowledge, digital skills, and international collaboration experience

Interactive and jointly created multimedia guides: How to Explore the Tours

3. Choose one of the three tours:

- Belgrade's Prisons During the Nazi Occupation
- Camps in Belgrade
- Following the Pth of Freedom

1. Download the free BerlinHistory APP (App store & Google Play)
2. Open the app. Select Interactive from the menu

Let's have a look into the MemoryLanes app. Our choice is Belgrade.

Three Centropa biographies are presented: Cadik Danon, Sofija Zoric Demajo, and Vera Amar

- ✓ Walking tour (on site, or virtual)
- ✓ Extracts from the students' movie about Vera Amar
- ✓ Photos from Centropa archive
- ✓ Interview with Vera's son Zoran Amar...

Memory Lanes documentation

The project has been documented in a film from the first meeting in Krakow to the closing conference in Belgrade.
